

PRESENTS

A Training Program for ASL Teachers

“How to Get Your American Sign Language Teachers Association (ASLTA) Certification”

Provisional, Qualified and Professional
Saturday, September 25, 2010

9:00 AM-12:00 Noon

COST: $25.00

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: 9/10/10

Location: Community College of Baltimore County- Catonsville

(click above link for map and directions)

800 South Rolling Road

Catonsville, MD 21228-5317

BUILDING H Room 308

Facilitator: David Martin, President, MDASLTA

Assistant Professor/Program Manager-ASL Studies

Frederick Community College

Google Map to CCBC Catonsville

REGISTRATION FORM “How to Get Your ASLTA Certification”

NAME

ADDRESS

CITY STATE ZIP EMAIL PHONE/VP

Day Evening OTHER Day Evening

EMPLOYER

Check Enclosed Amt:$ or Please charge: or VISA MASTERCARD
Amt:$

Acct.#: Security Code on back of card

Exp. Date: Signature:

To register, please mail or fax this form (or use email) to:

Attn: Amy Bopp, Sign Language Program Coordinator
The Hearing and Speech Agency
5900 Metro Drive
Baltimore, MD 21215
Fax 410-318-6759

For more information or questions, Email: Amy Bopp abopp@hasa.org or call: Videophone 443-453-5937

The goal of ASLTA is to ensure that ASL teachers are highly qualified to teach ASL and the culture and community of ASL.

ASLTA certification is one way of ensuring that a teacher is qualified to teach ASL whether the individual is deaf or hearing.